DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1957, wish to dedicate this, our final endeavor to our parents and our school. These two guiding forces have shaped and molded our lives into the beings that we are today. During the past twelve years, they have helped us each day to be better qualified to become the citizens of tomorrow.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class presented the play "Curtain Going Up" on May 2 and 3, 1957. This three-act comedy was unique and novel in that it was performed on a bare stage.

The story of the play was centered around Miss Burgess, who is directing her first play, and all the comical, yet trying, obstacles that faced her. Some of which were: a grouchy janitor, the loss of the play books, a swell-headed actor, crossed-up high school romances, a stage struck actress, a flamboyant professional actress with advice and - a romance for herself.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Irene Sharninghouse with Gene Snyder and Pat King as student directors. The stage managers were Jerry Woodward, Marvin Boes, and Gene Lewis.

The cast was as follows:

Mrs. Irene Burgess..... Margie Plesec
Lorry Fuller.....Roma Beamer
Nancy Leveridge..... Rosemary Conine
Miss Carolyn Moran.....Betty Bame
Miss Henrietta Rivers..... Pat King
Elsie Hunter.....Pat Reid
Mr. Norman Carter .....Dan Kuhlman

Mr. Richard Leveridge ..... David Dreisbach

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class presented "Men Are Like Street Cars" on March 22, 1957.

The three act comedy centered around the Mason family, especially the activities of the youngest member, Maudie. Maudie is in her early teens. She knows all the answers to everyone's personal problems and doesn't hesitate to give them. The two problems which Maudie herself has are trying to "marry off" her older sister, Silvia, and manipulate her part-time steady, Davy.

The situations become quite a scramble when Maudie starts using her techniques where they aren't wanted.

The play was directed by Mr. Fred Crates, with the assistance of Bette Jo Switzer and Betty Copsey, student directors.

The cast included Karen Greer as Maudie, Gerald Gaertner as Davy, Jean Norris as Mother, Gordon Fruth as Dad, Betty Copsey as Silvia, Paul Peters as Jerry, Bob Beamer as Ted, Rosemary Conine as Joy, Neva Van Sant as Alix, Sue Huffman as Lysbeth, Pauline Kish as Julie, Linda Kinshaw as Mrs. White, Audrey Walsh as Mrs. Allen, Joyce Ritter as Mrs. Day, Jerry Harmon as Chi, and Bette Jo Switzer as Margaret. The stage managers were Jim Wonder and Dale Swartz.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society is a National organization composed of high school juniors and seniors. These students are rated by a faculty committee at the end of the first semester on scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

The Hancock County Honor Society students hold three social events at the county schools. At the spring banquet the new members are initiated and are given their membership cards and pins.

Mrs. Oberholtzer was the Honor Society sponsor this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is one of the most active organizations in the high school. It is composed of eighteen members. Two from each organization and two from each of the top four grades.

Every student and teacher at the time of his or her registration as a member of this school automatically becomes a member of this organization and remains so until he graduates or severs connection with this school.

The purpose of the Student Council is to promote the general welfare of the students by cooperating with the faculty in promoting better citizenship, fostering scholarship, high ideals, and school spirit.

The Student Council sponsored numerous activities throughout the year. Among these were the dances after basketball and football games, the annual Homecoming, Recognition Day and the Spring Prom. A dance band furnished the music for the latter.

The Council donated money to Care and to the Polio fund this year.

They chose four full-length movies which were shown to the upper grades.

The project this year was Safety and Courtesy.

The Student Council officers were Jim Hitchings, President; Bob Beamer, Vice President; Sharon Stall, Secretary-Treasurer; Darlene Shaull, Reporter; Mrs. Edith Covert, Sponsor.

LIBRARY STAFF

The library staff, under the supervision of Mrs. Noel, has served the high school in many ways. Pat King was assistant librarian. Roma Beamer, Marge Plesec, Dave Shiley, Joyce Ritter, Pauline Kish, Marilyn Lazenby, Jean Norris, Betty Copsey, Audrey Walsh, Rosemary Conine, and Betty Blue also served as the library staff.

This year many new reference and fiction books were added to the library. Also added to the reading room was a new bulletin board for the purpose of displaying college and vocational material. Other additions included a cabinet for displaying science material, and several other new book and magazine shelves.

F.H.A.

The Arcadia Chapter of Future Homemakers of America had many big events this year. At Christmas they bought gifts for a needy family instead of having an exchange within the group. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was April 13. The banquet was served by the seniors and their mothers.

Bette Jo Switzer represents our chapter in the county as vice president.

HOMECOMING

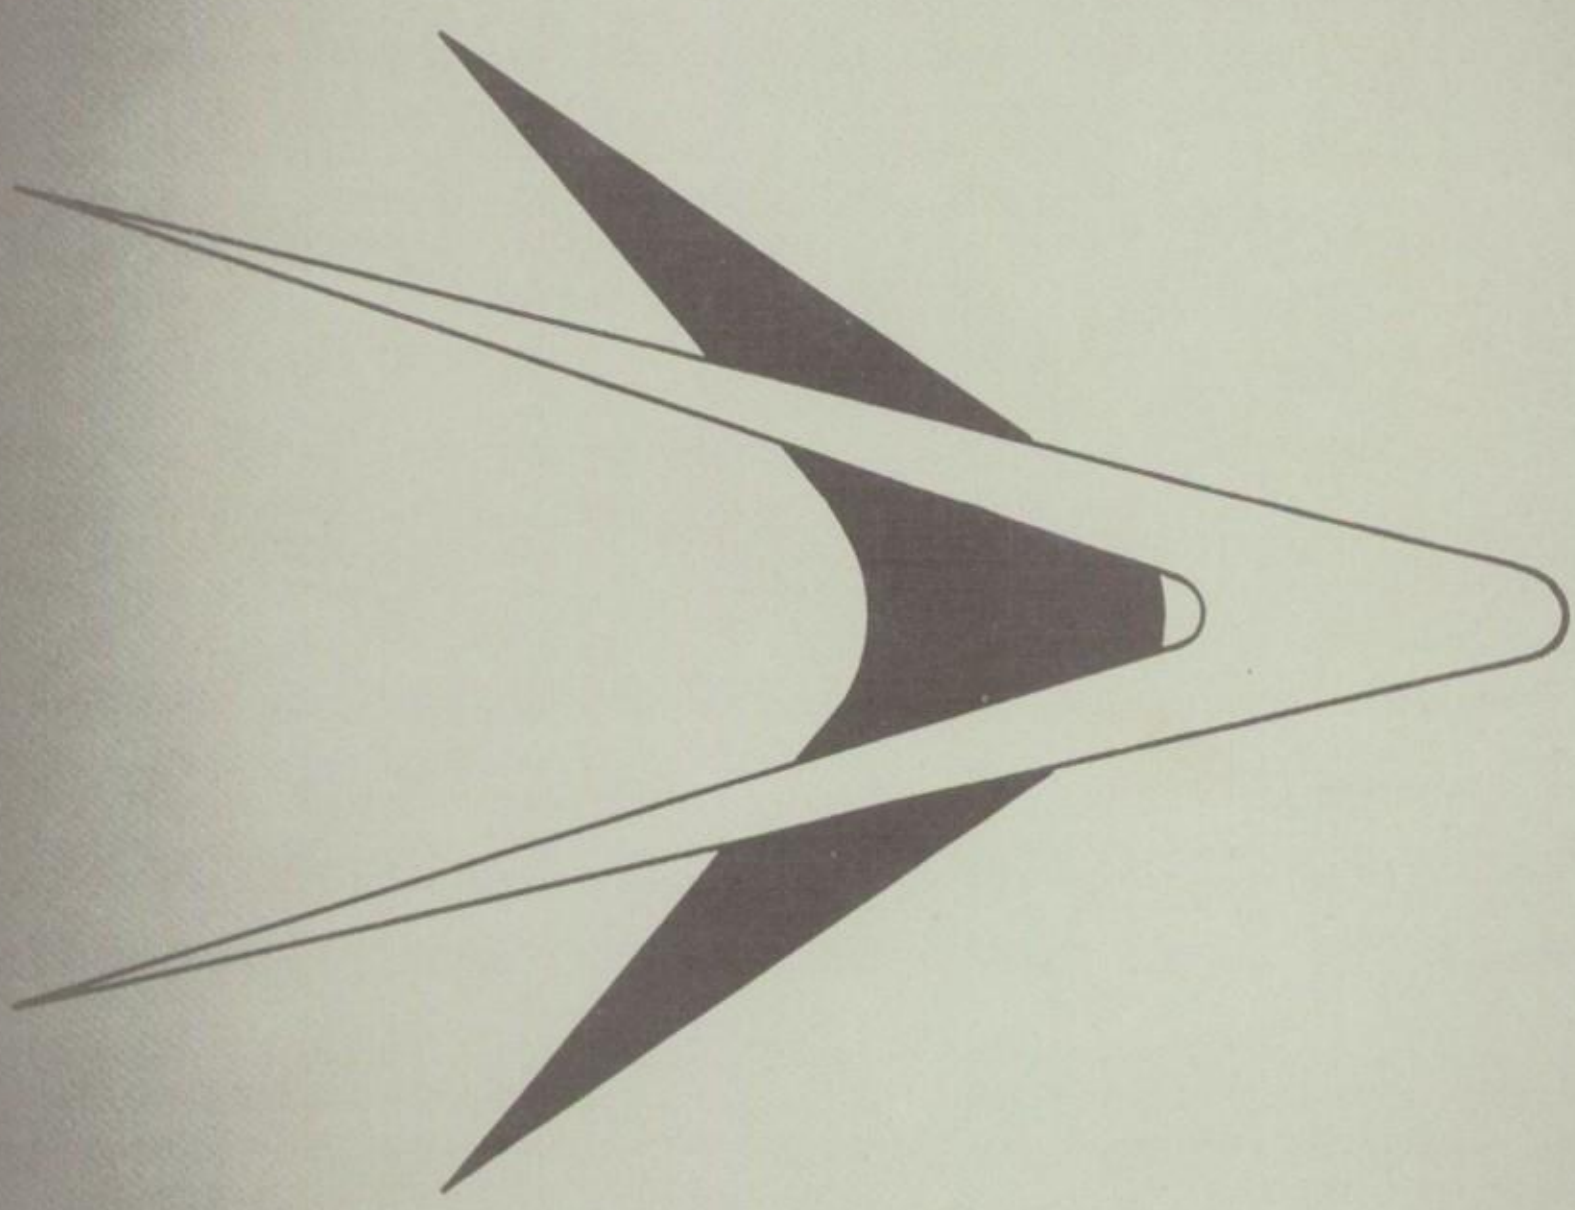
"AROUND OUR SCHOOL"



ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL

After four weeks of practice under the direction of new coaches the Arcadia Redskins were eager to start their most successful season for many years.

Their first victory came by defeating Cory-Rawson on their own field 7 - 6.

With hopes high the Redskins played host to Liberty-Benton and defeated them 32 - 12.

The next week we marched to Mt. Blanchard and after a very hard fought ball game came out on top 14 - 0.

Eager for another victory to rack up for Arcadia, we invited Van Buren to our field and chalked up another one 20 - 7.

Traveling to Arlington, last years champs, Arcadia simply annihilated them 27 - 7.

The championship game of the season found Vanlue playing host. In one of the most hard fought games Arcadia fans have seen in a long time, the Redskins bowed gracefully to Vanlue. Score 20 - 7.

Eager for revenge, Arcadia encountered McComb and smashed them 48 - 0.

Encountering an outsider, Arcadia showed its stuff against Hardin-Northern and although they outweighed us we managed to humble them 20 - 14.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

These five cheerleaders were chosen by popular vote of the student body to serve for both the football and basketball season. This year three seniors were chosen, Pat Reid, Pat Binger, Margie Plesec, and two sophomores, Joan Reid and Sally Binger.

The "greenhorns" this year were Sally and Margie, but they learned the ropes quickly with the help of the other three who had served very satisfactorily in previous years. The goal which the girls tried to attain was to improve their methods of leading and making a cheering section the school could be proud of.

Some of their favorite yells were: We're All Proud of it, Fite-Team-Fite, With an A, We Are the Redskins, and several pep songs.

We Appreciate Your Patronage, HANCOCK SAVINGS & LOAN, Findlay, Ohio

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

Millie Noel, Janet Noel, Norma Switzer, Dian Stillberger, and Daun Van Meter were chosen as Jr. High cheerleaders this year. They were selected by the popular vote of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. Their favorite yells are Success, Lean to the Left, and W-I-N. These five girls led the cheers that encouraged the boys to the championship.

TEN YEARS HENCE

It was October 15, 1967. The next few weeks of my life ended up completely different than I ever expected when it all began. This is the former BETTY BAME, presently living in California. In a few days I plan to make a trip back to Arcadia and then on to Africa.

Before I left I decided to take in a football game. Finally obtaining a position at the front of the line, it was much to my surprise, to find TOM MILLER as the head ticket agent. Going on in, I found it to be none other than LARRY RADER as the usher. Since we were old classmates he found me a seat in the best part of the stadium.

The Bears and the Lions were playing. The star fullback for the Bears was the one and only GENE SWITZER. After a bad kick-off the coach, BILL GOOD pulled him out of the game. After every game the coach has a nervous disorder and he says the only one that can nurse him back to health is the ex-MARGIE PLESEC. But she is not alone - Roma Beamer is there with her set of twins. By the way, Pat Reid is the head cheerleader. Her favorite cheer is "hip-hips-away".

My next few days were busy ones, getting ready for the trip. Boarding the train to leave I noticed that DAVID DREISBACH was the engineer. I remembered in school he said he always wanted to be an engineer. While reading a magazine on the train DAVID SHILEY'S name caught my attention. He is now filling in for Red Skelton while he is on vacation. I knew he could handle the job.

Settling back to watch the view while going through New Mexico a big billboard came into view. On it was TOM TREECE Tile Mill. He has the largest tile mill in the world. He specializes in square tile, round tile, and broken tile.

Pulling in at Cheyenne, I decided to get out of the train and look around. There on the platform was DAVE CARDWELL. It seems he is now a world famous scientist. His newest discovery is bigger and more powerful bombs with smaller bangs. He was about to take another recent trip to Washington to discuss matters with the President. While waiting for his train to pull out, Dave told me that BOB FARRELL is now an accountant. There's gossip around that Bob has found a new method to cut down HIS time in checking the books. He now hires an assistant.

Once again I was on the train and on my way to Chicago. As I was riding through the out-skirts of Chicago I noticed a huge building. It was JERRY WOODWARD and GENE LEWIS, Mechanics Incorporated. Their slogan was "Let Us Fix it and You Won't Have to Worry About Fixing it Again".

While waiting in Chicago for the Super Streamlined train to leave for Arcadia I decided to have my hair redone. I went to the salon in the train station. Much to my surprise the operators were DONNA WICKISER and ELLEN HEINZE. They told me that their permanents were not going over so well - so now their newest style was the Yul Brynner hair cut. They asked me if I was going to attend the big opening for JOAN MYERS at the theatre. She is a Fan Dancer. Her famous dance is the "Seven Veils". It has been said that six are in the washing machine. Of course I had to say no, because my train was ready to leave. I was wondering all the way back to Arcadia if any of my classmates would still be there. Sure enough, some were. JIM HITCHINGS now owns the biggest candy store in Ohio. I hear he has reduced prices - but he has also raised taxes.

I went to the nearest newstand to get a newspaper to see if there was any of my classmates in Arcadia who had hit the news. On the society page was the former PAT BINGER, who is now President of the Miss Guffy's Social Group. She must be kept quite busy. On the farm page was a picture of OTTO COFFMAN and his durocs. He is also part-time marshall in Bloomdale. In bold print was "Bowman's Dairy Cattle Win Top Honors in the International Fair". Of course, they were owned by LESTER BOWMAN.

I was getting hungry, so I went to the "Kuhlman's Eating Palace". It was owned and operated by DAN KUHLMAN. His head waitress and cook was PAT KING. They have quite a business because of their newest hamburger called the King Burger. As I was eating lunch Pat and I got into a conversation about our classmates. As I was about to say something a big black Cadillac went buzzing around the corner. The owner came in, and it was none other than GENE SNYDER. He explained the reason his car was black, was so as not to clash with the other three. Gene told us that MARVIN BOES owns the Boes Poultry Farm. He has just tried his new discovery to increase production. His formula is mixed up so that the chickens will lay two eggs at one time.

Across the street was the AWA. The initials stand for ARVID WEAVER and Associates. I'm not sure of his business, but his slogan is "We'll get you out of it".

PAT EISAMAN is working at the Garwood in Findlay. She finally got up the nerve to ask for her first raise after ten years.

Pat said that two of our classmates were at the Arcadia School. RODNEY CONLEY is now the beloved science teacher. His latest excitement was an explosion in the lab. DON WONDER is also there. He is now the janitor. He couldn't part with the scholastic atmosphere.

I had to say good-bye then. It was time for me to catch my next connection to go to Africa. As I was leaving, I thought to myself that all of the seniors of "57" made a success of themselves - even though many of them thought they wouldn't.
